To The Chairman and all members of Ystradfellte Community Council

Ystradfellte Community Council

Minutes of the meeting of Ystradfellte Community Council held at Ystradfellte Church Hall on 7th January 2019 at 7.00 p.m.

Present: Cllrs. C Woodley, H Pattrick, D Thomas, N Collins, L Jones, G Reynolds, K Bowman, L Cornish

Apologies: Dyfed Powys Police

2019/1 Minutes

The minutes were passed as a true record proposed by Cllr. Woodley and seconded by Cllr. Collins

2019/2 Declaration of Interest

2019/6 Cllr. Woodley declared an interest and left the meeting as he is a resident of the Hepste Valley.

2019/10 a Cllr. Woodley and Mrs Powell declared an interest as they are graziers of the common.

2019/3 Dyfed Powys Police

Dyfed Powys Police were not present

2019/4 County Borough Council

- a. There is a consultation on the mobile post office service which could affect the times of the service in PNV.
- b. The budget is an issue at present. There may be an increase of between 5% - 12% council tax.
- c. A letter will be sent to Rosemarie Harris Leader of Powys CC expressing disappointment with the county council spending £34,000.00 on a new canteen and reception area during these times of austerity.

2019/5 Matters Arising

- a. Parking PNV - The area was very busy over Christmas. The consultation closes today. There will possibly be a meeting in February, Cllr. Cornish will represent the community council.

2019/6Dyfed I.T.

Cllr. Woodley reported that he had been told that Dyfed I.T. had contacted all residents of the Hepste valley and only 1 person was interested. Cllr. Woodley declared an interest and left the meeting. Residents have said that they have not been contacted. Dyfed I.T. will be asked to contact the community council and not members of the community in future.
